SPEAKERS WILL INCLUDE

Keynote Speaker - Fadel Soliman
Director, Bridges Foundation, EGYPT
*Demystifying the Concept of Jihad –
How to Separate Jihad and Terrorism*

Mr. Soliman founded the Bridges Foundation in 2005. This international organisation aims at giving a better understanding of Islam to non Muslims and helps in the de-radicalisation of Muslim youths. Fadel Soliman is a member of the International Union of Muslim Scholars. He received his Master's degree in Shariah in 2008. Besides being an electronics engineer, Fadel is an international speaker, orator and presenter of Islam. He gave presentations to more than 65,000 people all over the world. He has spoken in churches, universities and governmental departments, such as the American Department of Defense, as well as at international events, such as the Frankfurt International Book Fair, 2004. Through the Bridges Foundation's workshops, Fadel has trained over 6,500 Muslim youths in more than 17 countries on how to present Islam and refute misconceptions.

Keynote Speaker - Anders Groenli
Special Adviser, Strategic Risk Management, Central Bank of Norway, NORWAY
The Oslo 22 July Terrorist Attack and Impact on Current Security Thinking

Anders Groenli works on threat assessments and security strategies for clients worldwide. Since 2010 he has also headed the development of threat definitions and attack scenarios for the European Union FP7 research project SPIRIT (Safety and Protection of built Infrastructure to Resist Integral Threats). He formerly worked for the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, as a policy adviser in the Norwegian Parliament and as a project manager for the European Commission. Anders has an MSc in Global Security from Cranfield University at the Defence Academy of the United Kingdom, and a BA in Organisational Psychology and Political Science from the University of Oslo. In 2009 he received the Imbert prize "for the development of ideas for the advancement of risk and security management in the UK". Anders is a member of the academic board of the Security Institute in the UK.
